

Events flow for precedent «Sign Up»

Short description.

This variant allows users add new account and login in system.

Preconditions.

1. Application checks user checks in the database.

Main events flow.

1. User push button «Login» or «Make new account».
2. User input login for account.
3. User input password for account.
4. User push button «OK».
5. Server confirm that account exists.
6. Application saves new account or login into account.

Events flow for precedent «Create new PC configuration»

Short description.

The user creates a new configuration of your computer, select the options you want in the right parts tab.

Preconditions.

1. Application checks the correct creation of the PC, so that all parts fit together.

Main events flow.

1. User push button «Start configure».
2. User select needed configuration into tab.
3. User push button «Next».
4. Server create configuration.

Events flow for precedent «Print configuration»

Short description.

The user can print created configuration.

Preconditions.

1. Application checks to perform configuration Print

Main events flow.

1. User push button «Start configure».
2. User select needed configuration into tab.
3. User push button «Next».
4. Server print collect configuration.

Events flow for precedent «Edit saved configuration list»

Short description.

Manage saved configurations list.

Preconditions.

1. Application checks accidentally deleted favorite configuration.

Main events flow.

1. User select need configuration.
2. User delete choose configuration.
3. User view choose configuration.

Events flow for precedent «View configuration»

Short description.

View previously created PC configurations.

Preconditions.

1. Application checks s on the configuration view.

Main events flow.

1. User select need configuration.
2. Show a short description of components.
3. System load data and show their user.